

ON-DEMAND COURSE

A Journey Through Dhrupad

Learning Indian Classical Music Through Performance

Explore the profound and timeless tradition of Dhrupad, the oldest form of Indian classical music. Through performance and exploration, this course provides clear insights into the philosophy, cosmology, and structure of Indian music.

OVERVIEW

Dhrupad is the mother of Indian music and one of the oldest musical traditions still practiced today. Rooted in deep spirituality and philosophical thought, it reflects the Indian worldview and cosmology.

This course offers a practical and philosophical approach to understanding Dhrupad through live demonstrations and detailed explanations.

Join us online to experience the profound beauty and discover new dimensions of Dhrupad.

INSTRUCTOR

Shree

- Dhrupad vocalist and performer from North India
- Over 27 years of experience in Indian classical music
- Disciple of Pt. Ritwik Sanyal
- Founder and Director, Nippon Dhrupad Association (2017)
- Performs, conducts workshops, and collaborates in Japan and internationally

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

- ✓ Understand the history and essence of Dhrupad
 - ✓ Learn the relationship between Ālāp and lyrics
 - ✓ Explore the structure of Ālāp
 - ✓ Study the composition of Jor and Jhala
 - ✓ Understand the relationship between Pakhawaj and Tāla
-  PDF materials included (2 files)

COURSE DETAILS

Audio (MP3)
5 Tracks

Approx.
208 Minutes
Total

Language
Japanese

PDF Materials
Included
(2 Files)

On-Demand Access
(Access Period:
3 Years)

Category
Arts / Culture

IDEAL FOR

✓ Those interested in Indian classical music

✓ Those who wish to learn spirituality and philosophy through music

✓ Those who want to deepen their understanding of performance and theory

✓ Those who want to learn Indian culture and arts

